A truly great turnout of over 60% more than last year with only a few that did not return targets. That shows a lot of dedication for shooting cast bullets. To brave the elements in January and February, it has to be the pure joy of getting outdoors to shoot for the first time in the new year and knowing that we have a whole shooting season ahead of us.

Congratulations are in order to all.

We are very pleased to enclose the appropriate award checks and certificates.
